

SIMILDIET IN THE XXIV SPANISH AESTHETIC MEDICINE SOCIETY NATIONAL (SEME) CONGRESS IN ZARAGOZA

SIMILDIET laboratorios participated as exhibitor in the XXIV National Congress of the Spanish Aesthetic Medicine Society (SEME) celebrated in Zaragoza between the 26 and the 28 of February.

The highlights were the opening and closing conferences. Dealing with topics such as nutrigenomic, light therapies and ethic limits in the Aesthetic Medicine.

As a novelty, in this occasion, the companies sponsored conferences and symposiums of most current issues, dealing topics such as the use of botulinum toxin, photo-ageing, climate change, alternatives to obesity treatments and laser equipments applications.

In fact, the participation of companies in this congress was very high with 70 represented firms.

Workshops were held, showing the last advances in medical aesthetic treatments and also were presented the practical clinic manuals in Aesthetic Medicine.